

You can now pay your taxes and national insurance premiums with your smartphone!

You can make payments via credit card or internet banking at home or outside starting from April 2020.

What you can pay for

- Municipal Taxes/Prefectural Taxes (Normal Collection)
- Fixed Asset Taxes/City Planning Taxes
- Light Motor Vehicle Taxes (Differs by type)
- National Health Insurance Premiums

Things to Note

- ※ Applies only to payment slips with a barcode printed on them.
- Payments exceeding 300,000 yen will not have a barcode printed on the payment slip and cannot be paid via your phone.
- ※ You can no longer pay via your phone if the expiration date printed on your payment slip has passed.
- ※ If you change the method of payment from direct debit payment, please contact us at least 2 weeks before the payment deadline. Our contact information is printed on the back.

2 Payment Methods Available

Pay by Credit Card

- Credit cards that can be used
Cards with the following logos:

- Service Fee
Please see the table on the right.
- ※ Taxes apply separately.
- ※ One-time payment only. Not available for payment in installments.

Amount Paid (per transaction)	Service Fee
1-5000 yen	25 yen (tax excluded)
5001-10,000 yen	75 yen (tax excluded)
10,001-20,000 yen	150 yen (tax excluded)
20,001-30,000 yen	250 yen (tax excluded)
30,001-40,000 yen	350 yen (tax excluded)
40,001-50,000 yen	450 yen (tax excluded)
After this, 100 yen (tax excluded) is charged for every additional 10,000 yen.

Internet Banking

- Available Banks
Please check the Mobile Reji homepage (NTT Data Corporation).
- ※ Institutions not under the list of banks designated by Hamamatsu (on the back of the statement) are also available.
- ※ You need to apply for internet banking beforehand. Please contact your bank for information on how to sign up.
- No service fee

モバイルレジ

<https://solution.ca.fis.jp/bc-pay/pc/>

Regarding Payment

- Receipts will not be issued. Please check your bank statement or bank book.
- If you pay Light Motor Vehicle Tax via your phone, a tax payment certificate (nozei shomeisho) needed for automobile inspection will not be issued. If you require the certificate, please pay at a bank or convenience store noted on the back of the payment slip.
- You cannot pay via credit card at banks or convenience stores.
- Even if you completed the procedure once, you must continue to complete the process for each payment slip as the money will not be automatically deducted for subsequent payment periods or fiscal years.
- To avoid paying twice, please take note of the day on which you paid. If you have paid twice, the taxes (or health insurance premiums) will be returned but the credit card service fee will not.
- For information regarding credit card points, please contact your credit card company.

How to Use ※Communications costs are borne by the user.

First download the app, Mobile Reji. (Free of charge, no user registration)

Mobile Reji Homepage <https://solution.cafis.jp/bc-pay/pc>

You can search for the app on Google Play (Android) or App Store (iPhone) and download it.

※ Mobile Reji is a service provided by NTT Data Corporation.

※ Please check the list of phones compatible with this app on the homepage.

Not accessible with flip phones.

①Open the app.

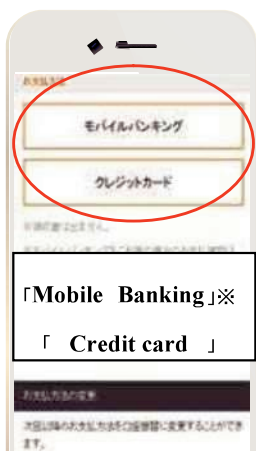

②Press the button "Scan Barcode".

③Take a picture of the barcode on your payment slip.

④Confirm the payment and choose a payment method.

⑤Confirm the Terms of Use.

⑥Enter your credit card details or bank details and complete payment.

⑦Payment completed.

※Mobile Banking refers to Internet Banking.

Contact

■ Municipal Tax Hamamatsu City Hall Tax General Affairs Division TEL053-457-2261

■ National Health Insurance Premiums Hamamatsu City Hall National Health Insurance & Pension Division TEL053-457-2873